

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS (GHANA)

NOTICE TO NON-REGISTERED FIRMS PRACTISING ACCOUNTANCY AS DEFINED IN SECTION 23 OF THE CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS ACT , 1963 (ACT 170)

It has come to the attention of the Institute that the firms listed below are practising accountancy as defined in Section 23 of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1963 (Act 170).

Please note that the Institute, being the regulator of the practice of accountancy in Ghana and also a member body of International Federation of Accountants (IFAC), has an obligation to demonstrate to IFAC and the public that it monitors the quality of the professional services that its members and member firms provide to their clients. The Quality Assurance monitoring of members and member firms practising accountancy commenced in 2012.

In the light of the above, the Representatives / Responsible Individuals / Partners of the under listed firms are being invited to contact the Institute of Chartered Accountants (Ghana) [ICAG] for further discussion.

This invitation is also extended to firms who are currently practising accountancy but have not as yet contacted the Institute for discussion.
